An internationally recognized organ solo artist, Douglas Major has toured throughout North America, Europe and the Far East. From 1974 through the spring of 2002, he was Organist and Choirmaster of the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C. He now lives in Salem, Massachusetts, composing music for organ, synthesizer, choirs and chamber ensembles. He also serves as Music Director of St. Michael's Church in Marblehead. Dr. Major's compositions include many sacred works, masses, anthems, psalm settings and organ music. Among his recent compositions are "Love Poem to God", commissioned by the American Guild of Organists; Requiem Mass in C Minor for choir, soloists, organ and strings, premiered in Atlanta in October of 2005; and a suite for organ entitled "Cape Ann Portraits", based upon locations along the Massachusetts coastline. Douglas Major is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Methuen Memorial Music Hall, Inc.
